Barrister's Grape-to-Glass Dinner

Thursday, October 4, 6PM, $85 – Reservations Required

Back by popular demand! Tonight we taste the entire winemaking process from grapes through to finished wine as winemaker Greg Lipsker of Barrister Winery provides us with examples of the grapes they are harvesting from their various vineyards, samples of juice already in the throes of fermentation, barrel samples from last year's harvest and naturally the finished wines of 2-3 years ago. The finished wines will accompany Chef Tanya Broesder's steak and seafood courses. This is the fourth time we have been able to host this event and it sells out every year! Make reservations soon!

Reservations can be made at 509-481-6020, or at www.masselows.com

WHITE WINE FEATURE

216	Domaine St. Aix Rosé, Aix-en-Provence	2016	9.5 / 34
-----	---------------------------------------	------	----------

Dry, French, pink wine from Provence is the summer wine for hearty full flavored foods from our Artisan Cheese Plate to our arrangement of Charcuterie. This wine is textured like Chardonnay, but with the crisper elements of like light, dried cranberry and mild watermelon impressions that shine out of this wine. A glass is a great aperitif to dinner, but a bottle will accompany our Roast Chicken, King Salmon and Saffron Scallops very nicely as well. Ask for a taste!

RED WINE FEATURE

1746 Guardian "Alibi" Cabernet Sauvignon Blend, Red Mountain 2014 18/70
Red Mountain, long-famous for its Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards, is also home to some Merlot and Petit Verdot which round out this quintessential Washington wine. This is a great example of our wines because it has just enough heft to carry flavor impressions like blackberry, smoke and mild licorice, but not so heavy as to overpower dinner. The range of flavor also extends to cigar box and cranberry. This is a flavorful Washington wine with medium tannins for a NY Strip or Tenderloin Oscar. Ask for a taste!
