

M&D (Movie & Dinner)

This unique and exciting movie and dinner concept brings a whole new level of fun to Northern Quest and the Inland Northwest. Guests visiting M&D can choose from a variety of entertainment experiences. Reserve your seat for a popular “New Release” movie and join us for lunch or dinner before, during or after your movie. Or if you’re just looking for a great lunch, dinner, cocktails, coffee or dessert at a hip and trendy local restaurant and lounge, you can do that, too! M&D will provide guests with a great opportunity for an afternoon or evening out – with or without the movie. It will also be the most modern and contemporary theater option around, with competitive movie ticket prices, tasty and affordable dining and fantastic service.

M&D

MOVIE AND DINNER

Facts about Movie & Dinner:

- M&D’s 25,000 sf theater will feature eight boutique screening room auditoriums and a Brut-Gourmet-style restaurant and lounge, located across the street from Northern Quest Resort & Casino’s EPIC entrance.
- Guests will enjoy reserved seating in comfortable motorized recliners and the convenience of ordering and enjoying dinner, drinks and snacks delivered straight to their seats.
- M&D’s signature restaurant, bar and lounge will seat 130 people and feature a menu of simple foods with bold flavors, led by Chef Mark Desmet.
- The comfortable lounge area will include the same recliners as those in the movie theaters, as well as a fun variety of cocktails, coffees and desserts.
- Along with sandwiches, BBQ and pizza, M&D will offer concession fare, including popcorn, candy and soft drinks – delivered straight to your reclining seat!
- M&D plans to hire between 50 and 75 employees.
- The parent company of M&D, CineGenesis, has designed, built and innovated the movie-going experience for more than four decades. They have brought several “firsts” to the movies, including cup holders, loveseats, stadium seating and “boothless” cinema.
