

Northern Quest Food Court Expansion

At Northern Quest Resort & Casino, we cater dining choices to fit every taste, style and palate. If you're in the mood for fast-casual dining, we now have three new exciting options to serve you! Ben & Jerry's ice cream scoop shop, Thomas Hammer Coffee Roasters and Qdoba Mexican Eats now round out our five-choice food court selection, joining one of the top ten busiest Fatburger restaurants in the entire world and The Deli. Whether you want a fresh-made burger, hand-crafted pizza or custom-built burrito, or if a hand-scooped ice cream cone or steaming hot espresso is what you're craving, we have you covered!

Facts about Ben & Jerry's:

- Serving ice cream, milkshakes and ice cream cakes.
- This is the second location in Spokane owned and operated by local franchisee Kari Conner. The first location has been at Riverpark Square since 2004.
- Will employ up to ten full-time and part-time Team Members.

Facts about Thomas Hammer Coffee Roasters:

- Serving all your favorite roasts and coffee drinks pulled by highly skilled baristas.
- Thomas Hammer has been roasting quality coffee in Spokane for 25 years (since 1993).
- Thomas Hammer currently employs more than 120 employees in Washington and Idaho.
- The Kalispel Tribe will manage and operate the Northern Quest location.
- Will employ up to ten full-time and part-time Team Members.

Facts about Qdoba Mexican Eats:

- Serving a variety of Mexican food options featuring fire-grilled steak, chicken, slow-roasted brisket and ground beef, along with daily fresh-made pico de gallo and hand-mashed guacamole.
- Guests can create their own masterpiece, with customizable entrées that have no limitations.
- There are more than 725 Qdoba Mexican Eats restaurants operating in 47 states throughout the U.S..
- The Qdoba at Northern Quest will be the first one operated inside a casino.
- Will employ approximately 25 Team Members and a management staff of five.
- Qdoba will be the second franchise operated and managed by the Kalispel Tribe.

