I acknowledge that I am responsible to meet or exceed the minimum expectation of food and or beverage purchases according to the number of seats at my reserved table. Food and or Beverage will further be defined as “F&B”. The “number of seats” can be defined as the number of available chairs at any assigned table. It is my responsibility to fill the seats at my assigned table as I am fully responsible for the F&B agreement. I fully understand that the minimum of $50 of F&B is required per seat at every assigned table before any applicable tax and gratuity. If the minimum F&B minimum purchases for each seat, then I agree to pay the remainder as a reservation fee. I understand that I must show up on the day of the event no later than twenty minutes after the start of the game. After which time should I not show up, my status will be considered a last-minute cancellation. Last minute cancellations are defined as any one person or reservation that fails to inform EPIC, a minimum of 48 hours prior to the beginning of the game, of their intention to not attend the event. Last minute cancellations will be charged the required F&B minimum. At that time, I understand that my reserved seats will be forfeit and EPIC reserves the right to fill those seats immediately. I understand at that point I am no longer guaranteed the previously agreed upon reservation. Should you be running late due to traffic or weather, please call to inform us.

I acknowledge that my reservation will not be considered completed until I have emailed or physically handed this agreement to a member of the EPIC management team. I understand that PCI DSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard) does not allow for electronically submitted requests (scan and email). I agree to bring a government issued ID and the credit card for payment on the day of the event for internal processing at EPIC.
